Joyce Chan · about a month ago Updated Dec 7, 2017 11:53am

We would like to remind you that the beginning of the Winter term starts January 8, 2018. If you have not registered yet, we encourage you to do so as soon as you are able to. We recognize that this is a busy season for many people, particularly those who are in active ministry. Therefore, we would like to extend the early bird deadline for winter term registration till December 15, 2017. We hope you will take advantage of this offer. The winter course schedule can be found in the attached PDF file or you may access it through: <https://carey.populiweb.com/router/folders/34093/show>.

When you register, please pay particular attention to the on-site dates for hybrid courses and the language of instruction.

Dear students,

I am delighted to let you know that our e-library through EBSCO is up and running. In addition to the electronic databases that you are already benefiting from the UBC Library database, you will find many ebooks in Bible, theology, and ministry subjects available through this new e-library. Please keep the user name and password to yourself and do not share it with non-Carey students. Click on Links in the blue bar above to access the links for EBSCO and UBC Library.

We are working in phases to add resources to the e-library. References (such as expensive dictionary and commentary sets) will be our top priority, then as many required texts as we can find, and good reference books as well.

If you have any question, please feel free to contact us. Happy reading.

Blessings,
Joyce
